

NG GEORGE PEOPLE HOLDS AUTO TOURNAMENT

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 9.— An auto tournament at King George attracted a large crowd, being the first of its kind here for several years and the first of its kind ever held there. The contest was exciting, and the first prize was won by Blandon Taylor, "Knight of Whitman," who transferred the honors to Willie Washington.
The other successful knights were John Pomeroy, of Westmoreland; George Ogle Taylor and W. D. Washington.
Robert E. Lewis, of Westmoreland, made a stirring address to the knights, and Thomas L. Hunter made the coronation address. The coronation took place in the J. O. U. A. M. hall, and Miss Louise Lloyd Washington was crowned queen of beauty by Willie Washington.
Miss Katherine Bowie, of "Campbellton," was chosen first maid of honor by Henry Taylor, of Westmoreland; Miss Adelaide Perry Bil-lasey, second maid of honor, was chosen by Robert Lewis and Miss Florence Pomeroy, third maid, was chosen by Manuel Thompson, both of Westmoreland. A dance followed which many couples engaged.

PETERSBURG, July 9.—B. M. victed at the April term of the Hopewell Court of attempting to attack Mrs. Pauline Bixby, his housekeeper, the time limit of sixty days. Jones will be taken to the State prison within the next several days.

POISONED LETTUCE MAKES FAMILY OF FOUR ILL

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LEESBURG, VA., July 9.—Mr. and Mrs. James Wallace, Mrs. Adelaide Wallace and Mr. William Wallace were badly poisoned as a result of eating lettuce taken from their garden in which the potato vines had been sprayed to kill bugs.
The spraying material, which had been put on the potatoes only, had also got on the lettuce, and the poisoning was quick and severe. A physician was quickly summoned and the three now reported to be improving.
